

Books at Castle Cary- Supporting Bereavement

There are many books that support bereavement, these are the books we have at Castle Cary to loan to families

Wherever You Are by Nancy Tillman

Hard board book, Whatever happens wherever you are my love will find you, a book for parents for their children

The Invisible String by Patrice Karst

Everyone you love is connected by an invisible string, wherever you are. Also supports separation anxiety, loneliness and loss.

ida ALWAYS Caron Levis and Charles Santoso

A story of two polar bears in a Zoo, one of them gets ill and isn't going to get better. Life during illness and after.

Badgers Parting Gift by Susan Varley

Timeless classic of how Badger's friends will remember him after he has died.

The Goodbye Book by Todd Parr

A simple picture book describing good days and bad days and saying goodbye

Love you Always by Frances Stickley and Migy Blanco

A story about Hedgehogs and of nature changing but love lasting forever

How to Live Forever by Colin Thompson (Picture book for older Primary children)

Peter searches for the book titled How to Live Forever as to read it gives immortality, what will he do when he finds the book and the people who have read it?

The Memory tree by Britta Teckentrup

A tale of how the woodland animals celebrated fox's life after he dies

Always and Forever by Debi Gliori and Alan Durant

A mixed up family of woodland animals find ways to move on after one of them dies

When Dinosaurs Die: A Guide to Understanding Death by Lauri Krasny Brown and Marc Brown

More of a factual Guide to the big questions surrounding Death, will promote discussions.

Grandad's Island by Benji Davies

Syd loves Grandad and Grandad loves Syd, but it is time for Grandad to leave.

The Sad Book by Michael Rosen

Explores the complex range of emotions after a death occurs. (older pupils)